Ir is noted as remarkable that Washington is now wholly relieved of troops for the first time sine November, 1860.

THE Press and Times of yesterday contains a call on Hon. John Trimble to become a candidate for this State.

Ir is said that Horace Maynard is aspiring to the new Associate Justiceship of the Supreme Court of the United States, created by a recent act of Congress.

THE Judiciary bill, which became a law by the President's signature on Saturday, providing for an additional Justice of the Su Judges, in addition to the District. Judges now holding, is a Radical device to subsidize the Federal Judiciary to the Congressional will.

POSTMASTER GENERAL CRESWELL appointed two hundred postmasters Saturday. A man's politics don't make any difference to Creswell the fact that he is found in an office is regarded as sufficient cause for his removal. Creswell removed a clerk on Saturday who had been employed in the department for

THE Press and Times of yesterday contains a call on John Trimble, Esq., to state whether he will accept the nomination for Supreme Judge for the middle division, if conferred upon him by the Radical State Convention. This call is W. Glassie, Jas. R. Willett, Chas. Wing, H. H. Harrison, Charles W.

A RESOLUTION was adopted by the House of Representatives authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury, in his discretion, to sell a customhouse in this city, or to exchange the same for a new and more eligible site. With the proeeeds of such sale or exchange, the Secretary of the Treasury was authorized and directed to purchase or procure a new and more eligible site for a customhouse in Nashvillet the cost of the new site in no even; to exceed the amount of the proceeds of the sale or exchange of the not acted on by the Senate, and of course the proposition fails until action can be had at the session of Congress which meets in December.

JUDGE JAMES P. SWANN has addressed a letter to the editor of says he cannot consent to give way loyal man, and placed in his charge Andrews is only a third-rate lawyer, and therefore not qualified for he is a carpet-bagger and not identified in interest with the people of this State, and therefore sponsible an office. Judge Swann says if his party or any one else expect him "to decare and maintain the laws for party or party purposes," he advises all such not to vote for him. Whether in view of this declaration or something else the Judge said or left unsaid, the Knoxville Whig declares that Swann "is unworthy" of the office.

A RADICAL QUARREL.

The Radicals are having a lively time in Memphis. There are too many patriots there willing to serve the country in some fat office, more than there are offices to be filled, and the consequence is there has been a split, and the factions AMERICAN that the editor of the of the men who have assumed the control of affairs in that county is Nashville Union;) that he had fafully portrayed in that document. The evidence there given is that of Radicals. They have been inti familiar with each other There representation. The reproduction will be no disposition to question of these specimens of his "fine what they say touching the rascal- writing" has shown him what : ities committed by each other The public will now get a glimpse of the men who have been enabled to control the negro vote of Shelby county, and by this means put themselves in office. The Hunter faction held a meeting at "Old Im, perial Hall" on the evening of the 7th inst., to elect a Republican Central Committee for Shelby county, and they charge that the Smith to our eyes than the upas tree of hangfaction used most disgraceful means to break up their meeting. In a published statement in the Mem- tion, taxation and representation go hand phis Post, for which that paper charges them advertising rates, they

"A band of noisy musicians and other ing of drums and screaming interrupted creating a riot or of breaking up the be forgiven? convention, in which disgraceful and riotous conduct they were protected, sustained and encouraged by the members of the metropolitan police, then present. appealed to arrest the rioters, or supgance, until a late hour, when the gas precipitated in darkness."

lighted, and it was announced that Judge Hunter would address the meeting. The rioters then returned, and by boisterous noises and strewing cayenne pepper on the stage and through the audience, succeeded in breaking up the meeting.

On the evening of the 8th inst., the Smith faction held a meeting at which "Judge Hunter's record, as a Judge and otherwise, was examined with great freedom and thoroughness, and his course was spoken of as one which every true a position on the Supreme bench of Republican must disapprove." It is very singular that these men always upheld Hunter until he hapthem - who were looking out for offices. At this meeting it was stated that "all the thieves and criminals in Memphis were rampant and zealous" in support of Hunter who is a candidate against Smith for Chancellor, and that "the gamblers and roughs and mackerels preme Court, and nine Circuit were all wishing him success." This man Hunter was Judge of the Criminal Court, an appointee of Gov. Brownlow, and when he attempted to crush the Memphis Avalanche, which commented freely on his evil practices, the men who are now denouncing him as the choice of thieves and criminals, were his most zealous supporters They gave him all the countenance they could in his crusade against the liberty of the press, and they did it because he was a Radical.

That is delphia convention in 1866, and not very consistent or commendable, but it is just what might be expected of Grant. The Knoxville Press and Herald of the 11th inst. furnishes another instance of Grant's practice clashing with his The citizens of Knoxville had hoped that when Gen. Grant announced that he would not remove a tried, faithful and competent officer, merely for political prinions' sake, he was in earnest, and that they would not be deprived of the present site. This resolution was valuable services of our long-tried, faithful and universally popular postmaster. For we say it without fear of contra-diction, that throughout all the departments of government there cannot be found a more honest, acceptable and capable public officer than Col. James C attrell has shown himself to be in charge of the Knoxville postoffice. When the Federal army occupied Knoxville the Knoxville Whin, in which he and East Tennessee, Gen. Burnside sought him out as an experienced, honest and to Judge Andrews. He insists that the United States mails. He was recognized by Mr. Lincoln, and subsccommissioned by President Johnson. Throughout the war, he was Judge of the Supreme Court, that an unfaltering friend of the government and was true to his professions, when his neighbors and associates all about him fluttered and gave way before the storm. What he was then he is to-day, a firm, honest, devoted friend to his country and should not be trusted with so re- his government, and he would endure the severest stings of penury before he would barter his principles for a mess of pottage. In being relieved of the responsibilities of a position he has so long and so honorably filled, we extend to Col Luttrell our wishes for a long and happy life in whatever field of usefulness th future may open up to him!

We have made these remarks withou any reference to Col. Luttrell's successor, who, after a hard contest with men of his own political household has gained the coveted prize. Dr. Rogers is an East Tennesseean, and the community in which he has lived all his life, have confidence in his integrity. He is not an offensive partisan, and we doubt not, will endeavor to administer his office faithfully and impartially.
